

I support satellite radio completely in its attempts to provide all of its listeners with information. The attempt to stop it from broadcasting weather and traffic is an attempt to stop the first amendment right. XM radio provides a great service to we listeners and any attempt to stop the broadcasting of information has to be born out of questionable motives.